FROM THE EAST

Anyone who has served in the East of any Masonic body, but more especially in the East of a symbolic lodge, has a special feeling of satisfaction and pride in his accomplishments in that office. It is only natural that he will also have a feeling of regret that he was not able to accomplish everything he had hoped during his term. He will also have second thoughts on how he handled some situations. Most of all, though, he has a deep and abiding concern for his lodge.

But, what about “life after service in the East?” What happens then? The answer will depend a great deal upon the individual and his attitude. There are some who relinquish the gavel with great reluctance. . . and there are some who never seem to give it up. And, yes, there are a few (fortunately a very few) who walk away from the job and never appear to look back and seldom come back. Fortunately, the vast majority of Past presiding officers take on a status of “senior advisors” who greatly assist their successors in the government of the Craft.

There are some who relinquish the gavel with great reluctance. . . and there are some who never seem to give it up.

Many lodges take full advantage of the talents of these experienced leaders. They are used on “executive councils”, as Trustees, Committee Chairmen, coaches, and as protem officers. So long as they are used to good advantage and are made to continue to feel needed and useful, they will continue to be great assets to the organization. It is when they are ignored and “cast off” that they look around for other outlets for their talents.

On behalf of our great Lodge, we honor and recognize the contributions made by our Past Masters:

- Living Past Masters
- Past Masters
- Living Past Masters Of Other Lodges
- Masonic Veterans (50,60 years)
- Honorary Members
- Life Members In Perpetuity

Sincerely and Fraternally
